

TAKE A WALK DOWN DIFFERENT STREETS

On the 25th October 2008 the new Christmas Steps Arts Quarter was named by the Lord Mayor. The area which twists its way through Perry Road, Lower Park Row, Colston Street, St Michael's Hill, the Christmas Steps themselves and the myriad maze of arched alleyways and secret passages is being reborn.

In each of the galleries the past both reflects and interacts with the future to create a truly unique area of independent artisans. A visit to the Christmas Steps Arts Quarter is both an illumination of Bristol history and an excursion into its modern treasures.

1,000 YEARS OF HISTORIC BUILDINGS
Within the area are buildings of Medieval, Jacobean, Tudor, Victorian and other periods.

CHRISTMAS STEPS ARTS QUARTER is home to 120 art-related businesses including 4 theatres 9 art galleries, 38 studios and workshops, 19 designers and architects, 25 shops selling arts & craft, a society of artists and musicians and the award winning Hotel Du Vin.
